Notes and News.

Trustees.—We regret to record the death on December 5th, of Mr. rold Wade. Mr. Wade had been a Trustee since 1913 until his retirement m the Board in October of this year.

Donations.—Our especial thanks are due to Mrs. Philemon Moore for generous gift of books from the library of the late Professor Philemon ore. A full list is given in an appendix to the present number of the lletin. Over and above a number of volumes on various subjects, which s. Moore was good enough to allow us to select, the gift consists of a lection of books on Christian Science and kindred topics formed by ofessor Moore and presented to the Library by his special desire. The list, ich will be found on page 87, includes, for completeness and convenience reference, a certain number of works which were already in the Library l which for that reason were not included in the gift.

The late Mr. Norton Baron, a regular reader of many years standing, o died on November 18th, by his will authorised the 'Librarian for the e being to select such of his books as he might desire for the Library.' Norton's books proved to be mostly mathematical works, or belles lettres eady in the Library or rather outside its scope. It has, however, been nd possible to select ten or a dozen volumes, which it will be a pleasure add to the number which Mr. Baron had already presented to the Library m time to time, as a memorial of his generous intention.

Divinity Scholarships.—The examination for the Divinity Scholarships s held in September last, and scholarships were awarded to Mr. G. Henton vies, M.A., Baptist College, Cardiff, Mr. J. Alwyn Parry, B.A., B.D., nsfield College, Oxford, and Mr. J. W. Timms, B.D., Mansfield College, ford.
